1872.

We herewith offer to our friends and correspondents, as well as to the trade in general, our Catalogue of all our publications and importations, with lowest wholesale prices attached.

Corresponding with all the principal publishers in our line at Paris, London, Berlin, Vienna, and Milan, and besides personally visiting all these places regularly every year, we command the best facilities to offer to the trade all the very latest novelties as soon as they appear in the market.

Our stock is the largest in this line of business in the United States, and constantly increases by weekly importations; so that, in addition to the articles named in this list, we have a great variety of other novelties on hand, for which we equally invite your orders.

By favoring us with your esteemed orders, you can depend on promptness and strictest attention to your commands.

In expectation of your liberal patronage, we remain,

Respectfully,

MAX JACOBY & ZELLER.

French and German Chromos.

The following is a list comprising the novelties of European Markets in this now so popular branch of fine arts. The sizes set opposite the Chromos indicate the size of the Chromo itself, without any margin. If desired, we furnish the Chromos mounted in the following different styles:

1. On White Bristol Board.
2. On heavy Mill Board.
3. On Canvas and Strainer.

} Prices varying according to size.

DECALCOMANIE.

A new and beautiful art of transferring pictures on china, glass, tin and wood articles; also safes, carriages, cars, leather, silk, &c., &c.

It is simple to perform, durable, and very effective.

The designs are printed in colors upon paper so prepared that after they are cemented to the surface of the article intended to be decorated, by simple damping of the back of the paper, it may be at once and entirely removed, and the finished work exactly resembles painting, nothing but the colored designs remaining upon the work.

The German sheets vary in prices from 20 cents to 50 cents a sheet.

The French sheets vary in prices from 50 cents to $1 per sheet.

We here give a few of the styles, viz., Flowers, Fruit, Animals, Landscapes, Figures, Scrolls, Female Heads, Coats of Arms, and many other subjects.
